EXCURSIONS

Hua Hin Town – Hua Hin has been a favorite destination of Thai kings since the early 20th century. It is famous for the many fresh seafood restaurants that line the seafront. Hua Hin has many interesting shops and a traditional Night Market featuring locally made handicrafts.

Golf – The greater Hua Hin area is a golfer's paradise. There are six international grade courses within an hour of the resort. These include The Royal Hua Hin Golf Course (Thailand's first) and the Springfield Royal Country Club. The Springfield Club has been recognized as one of the top ten golf courses in Asia.

Cultural and Historical Sites – There are many wonderful and interesting sites to see and visit in the Pranburi / Hua Hin area including Klai Kong Won Palace and the Khao Wang and Khao Takiab temples.

Monkey Island Boat Trip – An island off Dolphin Bay, Irrawady Dolphins both pink and grey are often spotted here. In fact, you can also spot them from time to time from the Pool Bar at Aleenta. The boat trip from the beach in-front of Aleenta can be arranged through Aleenta's front desk staff and the trip takes about 1 hour. Monkey Island is an uninhabited limestone island and is part of the Sam Roi Yod national park. The beach is pristine and is great for swimming.

National Parks – There are several National Parks close to the resort including Kaeng Krachan National Park, Thailand's largest, and Khao Sam Roi Yot, Thailand's first coastal park. Kaeng Krachan features nearly 3,000 sq. kms. of virgin rainforest waiting to be explored. Khao Sam Roi Yot is known for its numerous (300) mountain peaks. Both parks feature a wide variety of flora and fauna and are a paradise for birdwatchers.
