This menu is a summary of my travels around Asia, where everything starts with a smile, hearty culture and passion. Food in most cases is served in no particular order and shared like it is in a big family. We invite you to feel part of our family and enjoy the food that way. The importance of natural elements, the intrinsic correlation with ancient medicine makes the exotic Orient so interesting. We invite you to be healthy, feel at home and try delicious new dishes.

*We recommend you to order a dish from each different element box and then experience a truly Asian meal!
Please feel free to let us know your preferences ...*
